Port Staff Give Back Community Youth Services and SafePlace

Port staff donated more than $8,000 to two local charities in 2017.

Each year, Port staff vote on what charities to support. The Port recognizes the value in engaging employees in charitable activities and making it possible for the employees to give based on their personal passions.

In 2017, staff selected to support Community Youth Services and SafePlace. Events like a bowl-a-thon, crockpot challenge and annual auction and raffle are held to help raise funds.

We're fortunate to have staff with huge hearts that care about our community and continue to give in many ways. This is only one way Port staff give back. Many staff donates personally to other organizations through dollars and time.
