Advisory Calendar

Website Update Contract. Mike Reid, Director of Community and Economic Development, introduced Karen Andrade, Communications Specialist, who presented background information on updating the Port's website, the scope, goals and objectives for the project, and its projected costs and breakdown of services. After reviewing 33 proposals and two rounds of review, Snowberry Media was selected for the contract. The project should commence in November 2025, and completion is anticipated by July 2026. Consent approval will be requested at the October 27, 2025, Commission meeting to approve the contract with Snowberry Media.

Commissioner Reports/Discussion

Commissioner Montano reminded and invited everyone to her Town Hall, held this Monday, October 20, 2025, from 6:00 – 7:00 p.m. in the Port of Olympia's Olympics Room. She is looking for public input on the Port's budget, the Waterfront Center and environmental plans. She thanked Port staff for the recent budget retreat.

Commissioner Harding shared that the Thurston Regional Planning Council (TRPC) will conduct interviews for a new executive director next week. Experience Olympia and Beyond, in its desire to be collaborative and transparent, has invited all of the mayors and chair people of our neighboring jurisdictions to attend their next meeting, and to give feedback as to what they would like to see in the next executive director. Commissioner Harding's quote is from Jane Goodall: "You cannot get through a single day without having an impact on the world around you. What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of difference you want to make."

Commissioner Iyall reported that he recently attended the WPPA 2025 Environmental Seminar, a meeting of the Solid Waste Advisory Committee (SWAC) where an Open Public Meetings Act training was provided, a Transportation Policy Board meeting, and a Public Records Act training facilitated by the Port of Olympia.

Commissioner Sanders stated that she attended the first annual Lacey MakerSpace fundraiser, she was invited to attend the Bucoda pie eating contest, and she attended a Public Records Act training. Tomorrow she will attend the Tenino Chamber of Commerce meeting, and she will be attending a South Thurston Economic Development Initiative (STEDI) meeting this Friday. Commissioner Sanders is looking forward to the Boo-Coda (Bucoda) Casket Races this Saturday.

Commissioner Vasavada reported that she appreciated the Port's recent budget retreat.

Other Business

Commissioner Harding requested that the Commission review the procurement process facilitated at the Port of Olympia in a future work session. She was curious if there was a way to prioritize local and/or minority-owned businesses in at least a certain size of Port projects. Would the Commission support having the staff explore how other jurisdictions have facilitated prioritizing local and/or minority-owned businesses in at least a certain size. It was agreed to have this examined as part of the Port's procurement procedures/policies.

Commissioner Iyall requested that Shawn Gilbertson, the Port's Director of Environmental Planning and Programs, present a summary of the Washington Public Port Association's 2025 Environmental Seminar.

Meeting Announcements

A list of upcoming events was displayed for viewers to note upcoming Commission and POCAC meetings. Executive Director Smith stated the next Commission meeting, a Work Session, will be held on Monday, October 20, 2025, at 4:00 p.m.

Adjournment

There being no further business to come before the Port of Olympia Board of Commissioners, the Tuesday, October 14, 2025, regular meeting was adjourned at 6:15 p.m.
