Presenting a Tort Claim Form

Washington law requires citizens wishing to bring a claim against a local government entity to first present a tort claim form with the government at issue. The law also requires government entities to provide citizens with access to the tort claim form with instructions. In compliance with these requirements and for the convenience of citizens, the Port has prepared the following standard Claim Form.

Legal Requirements for Presenting a Tort Claim Form

In order to verify the claim and additional supporting information, the Claim Form must be signed by either:

1. The claimant;
2. A person holding written power of attorney from the claimant;
3. An attorney admitted to practice in Washington State on the claimant's behalf; or
4. A court-appointed guardian ad litem on behalf of the claimant.

Form presented without proper signature will be rejected. Please be sure to type or print clearly in ink.

Submit the Claim Form and Supporting Documents by mail or in person to:

_____NOTARY PUBLIC in and for the State of Washington

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) is the federal agency that oversees the Medicare program. Many Medicare beneficiaries have other insurance in addition to their Medicare benefits. Sometimes, Medicare is supposed to pay after the other insurance. However, if certain other insurance delays payment, Medicare may make a "conditional payment" so as to not inconvenience the beneficiary, and then recover after the other insurance pays.

Section 111 of the Medicare, Medicaid, and SCHIP Extension Act of 2007 (MMSEA), a federal law that became effective January 1, 2009, requires that liability insurers (including self-insurers), no-fault insurers, and workers' compensation plans report specific information about Medicare beneficiaries who have other insurance coverage. This reporting is to help CMS to properly coordinate payment of benefits among plans so that your medical claims are paid promptly and correctly.

We are asking you to answer the questions below so that we may comply with this law.

Please review this picture of the Medicare card to determine if you have, or have ever had, a similar Medicare card.
